Songs of Exile and Love

Sunday 24TH November at 4.00pm

A unique recital of music and song celebrating the culture and diversity of refugees throughout history and from around the world.

Julia Katarina is a classically trained mezzo-soprano and cellist. She is the founder of the charity Unity Music. Over the past ten years she has travelled extensively singing in refugee camps all over the world, touching people in exile with the comfort of songs from their homelands.

A specialist in Arabic music, Julia will share songs from Palestine, Lebanon and Syria, accompanying herself on Oud. She will be joined by Saara Hasan sharing songs from Turkey, Afghanistan, Bosnia and the Jewish diaspora. Julia and Saara will perform alongside the Avazaad Fusion Ensemble, a unique collaboration formed by Eliorah Goodman on flute and Atafeh Einoli on santur.

Classically trained in Tehran and London, Eliorah and Atafeh will also share some of their instrumental duets, interweaving themes and harmonies from both Jewish and Iranian music traditions. Light refreshments will be available

Admission £10.00 on the door to support Unity Music's work with refugees

Saturday 30th November at 7.30pm

'GO, LOVELY ROSE' - Songs of love and longing

AN EVENING RECITAL BY LILA CHRISP, MEZZO-SOPRANO, ACCOMPANIED BY SIMON FERRIS

FEATURING MUSIC BY STRAUSS, QUILTER, DUPARC AND FAURE

Free entry, with a retiring collection

Chiswick-based mezzo-soprano Lila Crisp graduated in 2017 with a First-Class degree in Music from Merton College, Oxford, and continues to study singing with Sally Burgess. An experienced performer on stage and in the concert hall, Lila has given numerous song recitals in Oxford, Rugby, and London, has sung in the London Song Festival 2018, and was the winner of the AESS Courtney Kenny competition for English Song and Poetry 2018.

In this short evening recital, she performs a selection of her favourite songs from across Europe, exploring themes of love and longing.

The City Glee Club Concert

General Election notwithstanding!

The City Glee Club justifiably claims to be the oldest musical club in London, having existed in various guises since it was founded during the reign of King Charles in 1669 following the Great Fire of London. The Club's professional singers are all members of London's great cathedral and church choirs. Club members (and concert audiences) are not required to sing but are invited to take relaxing refreshment and enjoy the sublime music and singing. So, come and find out what makes a Glee!

Admission £15 on the door to include a light supper at the interval.

Friday 13th December at 7.30pm

Milly and Lauren's Christmas Concert

Admission £15 on the door

Put work, shopping and politics to one side and step into the warm glow of St Peter's to enjoy a selection of our favourite pieces, with some festive music in the mix. Performed by soprano Milly Forrest and percussionist Lauren Kosty, accompanied by Jo Ramadan on piano and organ, what a great way to welcome Christmas. Come on in! Mince pies, mulled wine and a warm welcome await you!
