+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

We ask God for healing and forgiveness

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

The priest pronounces the Absolution, and we sing the Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Colossians 1.15-28

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him— provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.

Luke 10.38-42

Now as Jesus and the disciples went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

We sit for the sermon, and stand to affirm our faith

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord,
Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

We sit or kneel for intercessions, with the response

Lord in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

And at the end,

Merciful Father,
Accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Liturgy of the Sacrament

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Those who wish to make a donation to the offertory collection are reminded that collection plates and a card reader are available at the back of church at the end of the service.

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

The priest praise God for his mighty acts, and all respond:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The priest recalls the Last Supper, with the acclamation:

Great is the mystery of faith:
Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

The prayer leads into the doxology, to which all respond:

Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

The congregation are invited to communion with the words

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed

We receive communion in both kinds by intincting (dipping) the wafer into the chalice

HYMN 456 Teach me, my God and King
--

After all have received, the priest prays the post communion prayer, and we say together

Almighty God, we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

We remain seated for notices, after which the priest pronounces the blessing

HYMN 431 O thou who camest from above

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER, 6.30 pm, Sunday 17th July. Officiant Simon Brooke; reader Alex Johnston (Psalm 81, Genesis 41:1-27, I Corinthians 4.8-13).

ST PETER'S OLYMPICS. Sunday 7th August, 12-4.30 pm, in St Peter's Square. Join us for a bring-your-own family picnic, traditional kids races, for all ages, and entertainment. Sack race, tug of war, egg and spoon, three legged race, and more! £5 min donation per family on arrival. Pre-registration required, please email children@stpetersw6.org

Follett and Libby Balch are very kindly offering a stay at their SEASIDE COTTAGE in beautiful Aldeburgh, Suffolk. The house overlooks the beach, and sleeps six to eight people over three floors. In return, they are asking for a donation to St Peter's building work of £1000 for a one week stay (this is well below the 'market' rent for cottages in the area). For more details, contact them directly at follett@thebalches.net

As we enter the school holidays, please note there will be no 9 am FAMILY WORSHIP from next Sunday until September; the CHILDREN'S CLUB during the 10.30 am Holy Communion will also cease over the summer and resume again in September. Crèche facilities will continue to be available during the 10.30 Holy Communion as usual.

Please note that the VICAR is on annual leave from 18th July. In case of emergency, please contact the parish office or the church wardens.

St Peter's Primary School are seeking to appoint a TEACHING ASSISTANT to join their team, from September (27.5 hours per week, term time only). The successful applicant will be well qualified, enthusiastic, adaptable and have positive ways of assisting children to learn. This position would be ideal for a graduate who is considering a future career in teaching. For more details, email the school business manager Jacqueline Munroe at admin@stpetersce.lbhf.sch.uk

BUILDING REPAIRS. We're looking to raise a whopping £50,000 for essential building work at the church! Many thanks to those who have already given generously: you are amazing! Over £25,000 has already been given, so another £25,000 to go. Follow the link on the website to find out about the work or if you'd like to contribute.
