COLLECT:

Almighty and eternal God, you have kindled the flame of love in the hearts of the saints:
grant to us the same faith and power of love, that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may be sustained by their example and fellowship;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 25.6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

GOSPEL: John 11.32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

WELCOME TO ST PETER'S

If you are a visitor or guest, do please stay for coffee afterwards, and introduce yourself to one of the stewards (with a blue badge) or the vicar.

EXPLORING FAITH TODAY

Join Heike and Charles for a lively discussion about Christian faith, life, work, relationships and more, over a drink in the barn at the back of the Cross Keys pub. Running every Tuesday, from 8pm till 9.30pm, for six weeks from October 30th until December 6th. For adults seeking to be confirmed, this is an ideal starting point; for everybody else, it's a chance to explore together the big questions of life and faith. It'd be helpful to have a rough idea of who's coming in advance, but you can just turn up on the night!

BANNIS

Josie Goddard & David Deane getting married here at St Peter's on the 1st December; the third time of asking.

CHRISTMAS PRESENT TREE

Help give new Christmas presents to local children in need, by taking a tag (with gender and age of child) from the Christmas tree in church, and return it to church with a suitable wrapped present with tag attached, by Sunday 2nd December. There is a list of suggested gifts depending on age and gender by the tree and on the website at <https://stpetersw6.org/christmas-presents-appeal-2018/>
